

Dr. DANIJELA BRANKOVIĆ, I graduated at the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Novi Sad and became a Teacher of Serbo-Croatian Language and Yugoslav Literature. In 2008 I became a Teacher of German Language and Literature at the same Faculty. Since 1997 to present I have been working in the Archive of Vojvodina in Novi Sad (Serbia), where I work as a translator of the archival material and documents from German into Serbian language. In 2007 as a result of my contribution to the archive science, I was promoted and got the status of Higher Archivist. This year I have become candidate for archival counsellor. I have published several books on archival activities and speak German and Hungarian.
