

Dr. CATHERINE HOBBS, is the Literary Archivist (English-language) at Library and Archives Canada. Catherine is the Chair of the Special Interest Section on Personal Archives (SISPA) within the Association of Canadian Archivists and a member of the steering committee of the Section on Literary and Art Archives within the International Council on Archives. She has taught seminars, organized conferences and published articles on both literary archives and personal archives.