

Mrs. JASMINA NIKOLIĆ, ethnologist-anthropologist, senior archivist (1968) completed high school in Pozarevac, a BA and MA degrees from the Faculty of Philosophy - Department of Ethnology and Anthropology, University of Belgrade. Now a doctoral student in anthropology and ethnology of Philosophy, University of Belgrade. After graduation worked two years at the University of Belgrade, then four years as an advisor in the Ministry of Culture of Serbia. Since 2001. The works in the Historical Archives as archivist Požarevac-head of department, and since October 2003. The director of the Historical Archives of Pozarevac. She participated in several international and national scientific meetings and conferences (Canada, Norway, Italy, Slovenia, Serbia). The founder of the six editions of the Historical Archives Požarevac and their editor in chief, in which he published 42 titles in history, archival science and culture. Hired as an associate of Commerce encyclopedia SANU.U previous research work Jasmina Nikolic was expressed most interest in the history of society, and within this thematic complex especially for the history of the city, civic culture 20th century and modernization processes. Reflected in different types of works with a broad thematic. One of the authors of the monograph: “The Serbian people and the great powers, cultural and historical processes”, “The phenomenon of ethnicity in the works of Serbian authors in scientific opus ethnologist Dr. Vidosava Stojančević”, “Sixty years of the Historical Archives of Pozarevac”, “Cultural life Požarevca between Two World Wars”, “175 years in Pozarevac hospital”. Also, one of the authors of the permanent exhibition “Two Centuries of the military in Branicevo”, several exhibitions and exhibition catalogs published by the Historical Archives of Pozarevac. Member of several editorial and editor of several historical .Autor the preliminary designs “new building of the Historical Archives Požarevac” and “Reconstruction and renovation of existing buildings Historical Archives Požarevac”.